

Troop Historian

“And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” – Colossians 3:17

Introduction: By accepting the position of Troop Historian, you agree to provide service and leadership to your troop. The responsibility should be fun and rewarding. This job description outlines some of the things you are expected to do while serving in this leadership role.

Advisor/Adult Mentor: Assistant Scoutmaster / Program Coordinator

Reports to: Assistant Senior Patrol Leader

Specific Duties:

- Ensure that photographs are taken at each Troop activity.
- Work with the Troop Program Coordinator on the semi-annual Court of Honor presentation.
- Gather pictures, facts and memorabilia about troop activities and keep them in an historical file or scrapbook.
- Take care of troop trophies, ribbons, awards and souvenirs of troop activities.
- Display troop awards, scrapbooks, and Rank Boards at Courts of Honor.
- Work with the Troop webmaster to update the Troop website at least monthly.
- Set a good example.
- Enthusiastically wear the Scout uniform correctly.
- Live by the Scout Oath and Law.
- Show Scout spirit.
- Perform any additional duties as assigned by your Advisor.

Participate in a conference with your advisor midway through your tenure to discuss and evaluate your responsibilities and the performance of your duties. You can always have a conference with your advisor at any time. If you feel like having a discussion, just ask.

Resources: As Troop Historian, there are many resources available to you to help you do your job. These include people such as your Scoutmaster, ASM's, Troop Committee Members, and other Scouts. Other resources include teachers, religious leaders, community leaders, and fellow junior leaders. There is also literature available, some of which is in the Troop Library.
